@FLEXAPPEALFFL · 2026 SEASON · WEEK 10

THE FLEX APPEAL WEEKLY

Two weeks left. Seven tickets. One bye. Plus: the Playoff Race Tracker.

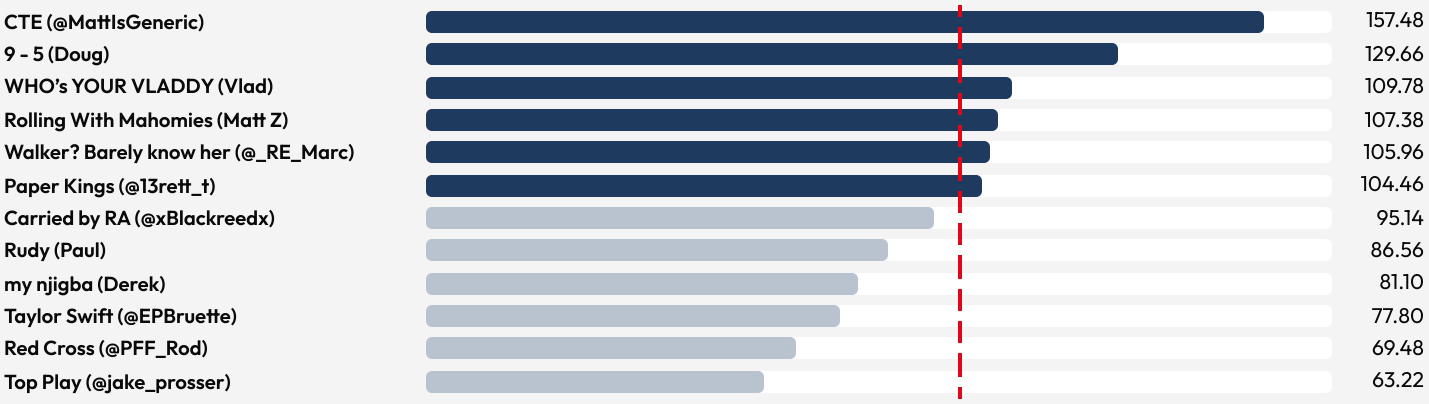

157.48	99.80	15-3	4 straight	0-18
Matt A: week high again	Week 9 median	Doug: playoff spot clinched	Vlad results won	The commissioner

Week 9 is final, the trade deadline has passed, and the regular season is down to four results per team: a head-to-head game and a median result in Weeks 10 and 11. The top seven make the playoffs in Week 12. Only the No. 1 seed gets a bye. Doug is the only team that has clinched a spot. This edition covers the usual Week 9 recap, the Week 10 board and the deadline deal, then the Playoff Race Tracker on pages 3 and 4.

WEEK 9: CTE AGAIN, AND VLAD BREAKS THE STREAK

CTE (@MattIsGeneric) posted the week's top score for the second straight week, 157.48, led by Jordan Love (36.18) and Puka Nacua (29.00). He beat Carried by RA (@xBlackreedx) by 62.34 and is now on a four-result winning streak. WHO's YOUR VLADDY (Vlad) ended Lij's six-result streak, winning 109.78 to 77.80 behind Matthew Golden (27.40) and Brock Bowers (18.80). Lij went 0-2.

THE WEEK 9 SCOREBOARD

Dashed red line: median 99.80. Navy = top six (median win); gray = missed. Final Sleeper scores.

Rudy Paul	86.56	Red Cross @PFF_Rod	69.48	17.08	Paul 1-1 · Juan 0-2

The rebound: Paper Kings (@13rett_t) snapped a six-result losing streak with a 2-0 week, beating Jake 104.46 to 63.22 behind Christian Watson (26.60) and Brock Purdy (26.28). Doug clinched: his 129.66 beat Matt Z's 107.38, and Ja'Marr Chase added 26.50. At 15-3, Doug can't fall below sixth. Walker, barely needed: Kenneth Walker's 34.30 carried Marc past Derek. The cut: Paul beat Juan but his 86.56 missed the median, so he went 1-1. Matt Z lost to Doug but cleared the median, also 1-1. Andrew missed the top six by 9.32 and went 0-2.

Lower weighted score is better. Standings 25% · PF 20% · TDs 15% · efficiency 15% · PD 10% · previous week 10% · streak 5%. Movement vs the posted Week 9 board.

Matt A stays No. 1 with the league's best PF (1,124.84), PD (+221.20) and lineup efficiency (91.6%). Brett is the big climber, up three to No. 4 after his 2-0 rebound. Vlad (No. 5) ranks above Lij, Paul and Marc despite a 9-9 record because he has won four straight results. Lij drops three to No. 6. He still leads the league in starter TDs (61), but his efficiency ranks ninth. Marc is 12-6 but No. 8, 11th in efficiency and 10th in TDs.

THE DEADLINE DEAL

TRADE · MON NOV 9 · THE ONLY TRADE OF DEADLINE WEEK — Week 9

Top Play (@jake_prosser) gets
Davante Adams (WR, LAR)
Marc's 2027 3rd
Adams scored 88.0 for Matt Z in Weeks 1–6, including 36.5 in Week 2, then 0.0 in Weeks 7–9.

Rolling With Mahomies (Matt Z) gets
Luther Burden III (WR, CHI)
Lij's 2027 5th
Burden scored 85.8 in six starts for Jake, with double digits in four straight weeks (13.5, 21.7, 15.1, 18.2).

Why it works for both teams: Matt Z (96% to make the playoffs) gets a receiver who is producing right now for the two-week rounds. Jake was already eliminated, so he moves from a 5th-round pick to a 3rd for 2027 and takes a chance on Adams. Burden is on Matt Z's bench for Week 10.

WAIVER WIRE SINCE THE WEEK 9 EDITION

Matt A Kaleb Johnson ($21, cut Keaton Mitchell) and Malachi Fields ($10), who Vlad had cut on Sunday.

Brett Audric Estime ($4) and Efton Chism ($1), then cut Chism for Jonathon Brooks. He also cut Brian Robinson.

Marc · Matt Z Marc: Konata Mumpfield ($10). Matt Z: Jordan Watkins ($10).

Vlad Arvell Reese (8.5 on TNF), Terrance Ferguson and Reggie Virgil. He cut Mike Gesicki.

Doug · Paul Doug cut T.J. Watt for Andrew Van Ginkel. Paul picked up Quentin Johnston for Dallas Turner.

Jake · Juan · Andrew Jake: Tyjae Spears and Tutu Atwell (cut Malik Willis). Juan: Demarcus Robinson. Andrew: Nick Bolton (cut Makai Lemon).

LINEUP LAB: WEEK 9 POINTS LEFT ON THE BENCH

Navy = actual score; pink = best possible lineup; dashed line = median. The two numbers are actual and best possible.

Jake's best Week 9 lineup would have gone 2-0. C.J. Stroud scored 36.36 on the bench while Malik Willis scored 4.82 at QB, and Tank Dell's 18.50 sat while Ladd McConkey scored 0.00. The best possible 116.36 would have beaten Brett's 104.46 and finished third for the week. Paul's best lineup (107.96) would have made the top six. Matt Z's best (127.68) still loses to Doug.

MAGIC NUMBERS

TEAM	RESULTS TO CLINCH*
Doug	Clinched. 3 of 4 locks the bye; 2 was enough in every sim
Matt A	1
Lij · Matt Z · Marc	2
Paul	3
Brett	4 (a 4-0 finish)
Vlad	Can't clinch on his own; 96% at 4-0
Derek	4-0 plus help (~5% even then)

*Results = H2H plus median wins, out of 4 left. Clinch means in even if he loses every PF tiebreak.

THE BYE RACE

Doug has an 81% chance at the No. 1 seed and Matt A has 18%. With 1 result, Doug keeps the bye about 90% of the time, unless Matt A gets 3 or more; Matt A would win a 16-16 tie on PF (+42). An 0-4 finish almost certainly costs Doug the bye. Lij, Marc and Matt Z can reach No. 1 only by going 4-0 while both leaders stumble.

THE BUBBLE: VLAD VS BRETT

	BRETT +0	BRETT +1	BRETT +2	BRETT +3	BRETT +4
Vlad +4 (13-9)	100	100	100	93	87
Vlad +3 (12-10)	100	100	67	34	35
Vlad +2 (11-11)	100	68	5	6	7
Vlad +1 (10-12)	36	0	0	0	0
Vlad +0 (9-13)	0	0	0	0	0

Vlad's playoff odds (%) by results added by each team over Weeks 10–11. Ties go to PF, where Brett leads by 7.8.

Vlad's three clean paths in:
① 4-0 and Brett 2-2 or worse
② 3-1 and Brett 1-3 or worse
③ 2-2 and Brett 0-4

Brett is 97% to make it with 3 of 4 results, 69% with 2 and 26% with 1. Paul is 96% with 2 results, and even 0-4 leaves him at 30% because of his PF (1,027.26). At 0-4, Vlad is out.

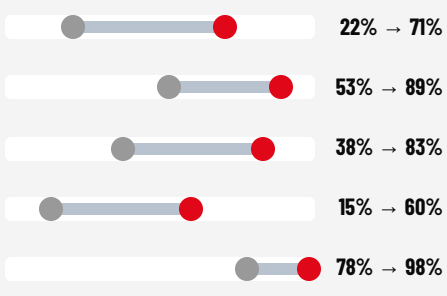

BUBBLE ODDS BY RESULTS ADDED IN WEEKS 10-11

	+0 (0-4)	+1 (1-3)	+2 (2-2)	+3 (3-1)	+4 (4-0)
Rudy (Paul) · 11-7	30%	75%	96%	100%	100%
Paper Kings (@13rett_t) · 10-8	4%	26%	69%	97%	100%
WHO's YOUR VLADDY (Vlad) · 9-9	0%	3%	23%	61%	96%
my njigba (Derek) · 7-11	0%	0%	0%	0.1%	5%

Each team's playoff odds by its own results added (H2H plus median wins out of 4). Marc, Lij and Matt Z are about 58% even at 0-4 and 100% with 2 or more.

Tiebreaker caution: the bylaws don't name a seeding tiebreaker, and Sleeper doesn't publish one. These odds use total points for, which is how Sleeper sorts its standings. The league should confirm it before a tie happens.

FIVE GAMES THAT SWING THE RACE

Gray dot = odds with a loss; red dot = with a win. Doug vs Brett is also the biggest threat to Doug's bye.

LIKELY WILD-CARD MATCHUPS

1 SEED · BYE

Most likely full seeding is Doug, Matt A, Matt Z, Lij, Marc, Paul, Brett, and even that happens only 0.8% of the time. Matt Z vs Vlad, a rematch of the 2025 final, comes up in 5% of sims.

RACE NOTES

VLAD HAS DONE THIS BEFORE
In 2025 Vlad was 9-9 after Week 9, went 4-0 to finish 13-9 and won the title. He is 9-9 through Week 9 again, two weeks after sitting at 5-9. Another 4-0 makes him about 96% to get in.

BRETT'S COMEBACK
He started 8-2, lost six straight results in Weeks 6–8, then went 2-0 in Week 9 to get back to 10-8. A win over Doug this week takes him to 89%.

PAUL'S TURNAROUND
Paul went 3-19 last season, the worst record in league history. Now he is 11-7 and 88% to make the playoffs.

WORST-RECORD WATCH
Paul's 3-19 record is likely to fall. Jake (0-18) goes 0-22 in 80% of sims, and Juan (2-16) sets a new low at 2-20 in 65%. Both finish below 3-19 in 65% of sims.

WEEK 10: LIVE AFTER THURSDAY NIGHT

COMMISSIONER'S CORNER: 0-18

Nine head-to-head losses and nine median losses. Jake is last in PF (710.58) and PD (−286.72), and his best Week 9 lineup would have won both results. The simulations give him about a 20% chance of winning at least one result. He is 8% to beat Marc this week and 11% to beat Derek in Week 11. He did have one deadline move: sending Burden to a contender for an upgraded 2027 pick.
